A word from your Chronicler :

Greetings all and sundry, especially those who are sundry. With the holidays coming up and a redesign of The Forest Watch in progress, I must regretfully inform you that this will be an abbreviated edition of the newsletter.

I extend my hearty thanks to you for taking time out of your busy schedules to read this, my second inaugural edition. Yes, I have been Chronicler before. I promise not to abuse my power any more than I did last time.

This is also a perfect time for me to ask the populace, or those who read the newsletter anyway, for submissions. Do remember that appropriate forms will have to be filled out should you wish to contribute anything at all. I'm not picky. Recipes, songs, poetry, articles, how-tos, want-ads, jokes. As long as it meets the guidelines set forth by the Society, Kingdom and Barony, it is fine by me.

Happy Holidays everyone,
Annabeau

Seneschal’s Missive

Greetings.

We enter into the season of family and friends, and I wish to take this opportunity to wish all of you a safe and happy holiday season. Because December is so rushed, I suggest that we not have a December meeting.

We will get together again on Sunday, January 8th 2012, at The Nest, at 1 PM. This can be our holiday moot. Everyone bring a dish to pass. The meeting should be short enough, with some pre-event items to go over for TMT in mid March.

I would like to ask everyone to think about feast tokens. Bear in mind that TMT is going to be twelve this next year, and think about what a twelve year old might come up with for feast tokens.

I only mention feast tokens because I wish to try not having site tokens. The site is small and secure enough and we know everybody anyhow, so I think we could try doing without them this year—at least as an experiment.

I would also like to ask for donations of ribbon scraps, sequins, and beads for the Decorate-A-Staff contest, and popsicle sticks, paper clips, rubber bands, small rolls of duct tape and whatever might go well in the Build-A-Siege Weapon kits.

I remain, as always, in service to the dream.

Matthias
